New Business:

- Jr Female Nationals
 - o Looking at junior female nations – Alberta not sending a team and Ontario may not be sending a team
- If a team is being send by BC it will be discussed at the female meeting
- Female Meeting – Saturday January 20 at centennial
- There is a new policy for junior female if they are away at school
- Commissioner for season – need to be in by February 1
 - o Some are in and there will be fines for late one
- Releases
 - o Sent you a FAQ sheet on releases and have placed in on the website as well
 - o Need to remind you that US players must fill in a release form and proof of out of country insurance
 - o They are not to register with a club, they need to be approved by the minor directorate and then we will place them
 - o If you get any inquires refer them to Beth for any out of country players
 - o No release will be looked at until after the March declaration meeting
- Game sheets
 - o Have been updated and have taken off the door person
 - o Some other changes have been made
 - o They are available at the BCLA office and have been bundled up for associations
- Contact Info
 - o Please ensure that you are getting the correct information and your second contact is correct as well
- Feb meeting
 - o Nothing available in this building or at Centennial for Tuesdays
 - o Will look and see there is a Wednesday or some other room available
- Updated Suspension list
 - o Please read over it and check the names of coaches and player that are new to your association
- Midget Provincials
 - o Some clubs want to know why there are not 8 teams in midget A1
- Surrey – issue with the City of Surrey and the charge for floor keep going up
 - o The average seems to between 40-50
- Registration how is it going with the associations,
 - o How are the smaller associations doing for female teams

- Banners are here from 2017 and 2016
- There are no door persons anymore they have to be certified
