2023-2024 Manitoba Games Identification Event

Identification Event

The Identification Event is a simple process whereby coaches and assistants provide a festival game format to facilitate interest in participating in the 2024 Manitoba Games from players who are born 2010 and later. This event would be approximately 90 minutes to 120 minutes of small-sided games.

- Registration Process:
Manitoba Soccer Association is providing the following link for registration on Ramp to gather essential information from participants, such as name, age, playing position, and previous soccer experience. <https://www.rampregistrations.com/a/clinic/default?v3=006208e8&dGd1aWQ1=NklxOUJENjAtMDY4OS00NDMxLUIyOEUtNTk0QkZGRTE2RUFD0> (Instruction: You will need to create an account if you are login into Ramp for the first time, then you will select camp and clinic registration, last you will choose your region below the searching bar to register for the ID event). Registration is mandatory*
- Information Session:
Prior to the session starting, leads / coaches will provide a brief information meeting (roughly 5 minutes) to discuss the 2024 Manitoba Games. Participants may ask questions and express their interest at the end of the session.
- Date & Location
More information about the ID event dates & location will be available on our website after we finalize the details.

Please register for the ID event on Ramp if you are interested, and if you any questions, please email flyu@manitobasoccer.ca.

Thank you,
