

Code of Conduct

Marsden Neilburg Minor Hockey needs to inform all every one of the rules of the arena during and what the consequences of breaking these rules can be. The rules are as follows:

1. The downstairs dressing room area is for minor hockey players and coaches only. There are to be no unauthorized minors allowed downstairs during these time slots. This area is designated for players and coaches only, and is a " NO PLAY ZONE".
2. Abuse of officials, coaches, managers, or any players will not be tolerated.

If these rules are broken there will be consequences. If a complaint comes to the attention of our minor hockey board, disciplinary action will be taken. Disciplinary action can mean, but is not limited to, being banned from the arena during minor hockey time slots. The length of time that you could be banned will be determined by the minor hockey board after any failure to comply with the rules is reported. If there is an incident report filed with S.T.E.P. League, disciplinary action must be taken. Failure to take disciplinary action can result in our Marsden Neilburg Minor Hockey being fined or even banned by S.T.E.P League. This could result in every player registered with our association, being unable to play.

(An excerpt from S.T.E.P. Constitution.)

Minor Hockey Associations A) Are responsible for their team officials, parents and spectators B) It is up to the associations to make sure the appropriate suspensions are followed. C) A minor hockey association may lose their bond and may be on probation for one year if these suspensions are not followed. D) If associations lose their bond a second time, under this ruling, this association may be ejected from STEP league. E) If your association sees a suspended person (under this rule) as a STEP league minor hockey game it is your obligation to notify STEP league.

The intention of this notice is not to deter people from attending the arena during minor hockey time slots, but to ensure that everybody that is using our arena during these time slots, do so respectfully. We want to ensure a safe, fun, respectful, competitive, cheerful environment for everyone to enjoy. Please sign a copy of this notice, acknowledging the rules and possible disciplinary actions listed above.

Thank you,

Marsden Neilburg Minor Hockey Board
