Game Sheet Check-List

- Prior to each game the timekeeper and score keeper should make sure that the game sheet contains the following
 - The top of score sheet is filled out correctly
 - o Rosters are completed and there is a signature at the bottom
 - Each page contains a team roster—if roster is on a sticker there must be a sticker on each page of the score sheet

Filling out Score Sheet

- Each team has a section for scoring and penalties. Home team is on the left and Away team is on the right. Each team's information needs to be filled out completely.
 - o Scoring—each team's scoring section has the headings: No, P, Time, Sc, Asst
 - No-refers to the number of the goal (1st, 2nd, 3rd etc.)
 - P-refers to the period the goal is scored in.
 - Time-refers to the time on the clock when the goal is scored
 - SC-refers to the number of the player that scored the goal
 - Asst-refers to the number of the player(s) that assisted the goal (if any)
 - The referees will provide the scorekeeper with the information regarding the player that scored and who assisted the goal. The other information should be provided by the scorekeeper.
 - Penalties—each team's penalties section has the headings: Per, No, Serv, Infraction, min, off, start, on.
 - Per-refers to the period that the penalty was given in.
 - No-refers to the number of the player receiving the penalty

- Serv-refers to the number of the player serving the penalty, will only be different from the player receiving the penalty if it is a misconduct or in the case of an injury.
- Infraction-refers to the reason the player received the penalty-use the penalty abbreviation list for this.
- Min-refers to the number of minutes the penalty is—standard is 2 minutes for stop time games and 3 minutes for straight time games.
- Off—refers to the score clock time that the player step off the ice
- Start-refers to the score clock time the penalty actually starts, will only be different from Off in the case of straight time games, or in a delayed penalty situation.
- On-the time that the player returns to the ice, in the case of a goal scored it will be the time of the goal, if it is at the expired time of the penalty then it will be that time.
- Referees will provide the score keeper the information regarding the player receiving the penalty, player serving the penalty, reason for the penalty, and number of minutes for the penalty.
