4. Should the President be unable to complete his or her term, his or her position shall be filled by a by-election held at a Special Meeting for the remainder of the term. Should quorum not be met at the Special Meeting, the Board of Directors may appoint a replacement by a majority vote of the directors at any meeting of the directors in which quorum is met;

5. Should the President be appointed, this appointment lasts only until the AGM at which point the position shall be up for election for any remainder of the term.
6. Should any other director fail to complete his or her term, the Board may, at any Board meeting in which quorum is present, appoint a replacement for the departing director until the next AGM at which point the position shall be filled by election.
7. Failure to complete term will result in a review of the director's membership standing by the Board of Directors.

6.6.3 Conflict of Interest

A director shall disclose his or her interest in any material contract or proposed material contract with the Association.

6.6.4 Requirements

1. Board member must submit a criminal record check to the MJMHA office before the new season starts September 1st.
2. Board members must sign a confidentiality agreement at their first meeting of the board of directors
3. The President, Vice-President, and Referee in Chief may not be a Head Coach for any team.
4. Division Directors may not be a head coach in their own division unless they are able to demonstrate a need and must receive board approval prior to being assigned a team.

6.6.5 Agents and Employees

The Board may appoint such agents and engage such employees as it shall deem necessary from time to time and such person shall have such authority and shall perform such duties as shall be prescribed by the Board at the time of such appointment. The remuneration of all agents and employees shall be fixed by the Board by ordinary Resolution

6.6.6 Expenditures

The Board shall have the power to make expenditures for the purpose of furthering the objects of the Association.

6.6.7 Grants

The Board shall take such steps as they may deem requisite to enable the Association to acquire, accept, solicit or receive grants and donations of any kind whatsoever for the purpose of furthering the objects of the Association.

ARTICLE 7: MEETING OF THE MEMBERS OF THE ASSOCIATION

7.1 Location

Meetings of members of the Association shall be held in the City of Moose Jaw, in the Province of Saskatchewan as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

7.2 Calling of Special General Meetings

1. A special general meeting of MJMHA may be called by the majority vote of the Board of Directors, or when petitioned to do so in writing by at least 50 members. The board must meet within 96 hours of receiving notice of petition to set the date of the special general meeting
2. Notice of the Special General Membership meetings must be placed on the Association website at least twenty one (21), and no more than forty five (45) calendar days prior to the date of the meeting.

7.3 Annual General Meetings

The Annual General Meeting of the Association shall be held on or before April 30th of each year. The date of this meeting will be determined by the Board of Directors with at least 30 days and not more than 60 days notice given to the general membership by posting on the association Web Site.

7.4 Special Committee Meetings

Special Committee Meetings shall be held at the discretion of the specific committee chair.

7.5 Team Meetings

Each Division Director shall call meetings of their appointed Team Officials during each hockey season. Teams may request the presence of a board member at any team meeting.

7.6 Documentation at Annual General Meeting

Subject to the Act, the Board of Directors shall place before the members at every Annual General Meeting:

1. financial statements as prescribed by the Act; and
2. the report of the auditor, if any.
3. written reports from each Board Member
4. The directors shall additionally publish prior to the annual meeting a notice that the above documents are available at the registered office of the Association to be examined during the usual business hours of the Association by any person and that person may make extracts there from free of charge.

7.7 Quorum

Quorum for annual and special meetings of the membership of the Association will consist of 35 members in good standing.

7.8 Adjournment

The Chairman of the meeting may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn any meeting of the members from time to time to a fixed time and place, and provided such adjournment is for less than 30 days, no notice of the time and place for the holding of the adjourned meeting need be given to the members other than by announcement at the earliest meeting that is adjourned.

7.9 Right to Vote

At any meeting of the members, every representative shall be entitled to vote at the meeting who at the time is a member entered in the register of members as the holder of a membership interest carrying the right to vote at such meeting and is a member in good standing. No votes by proxy will be allowed at any meeting of the general membership of the Association.

7.10 Votes to Govern

At any meeting of the members, unless a special resolution or some other special majority is required by the Act or the Articles, all questions shall be decided by the majority of votes cast on the question. In the case of an equality of votes, either upon a show of hands or upon a poll, the Chair shall cast the deciding vote.

7.11 Voting

Unless a ballot is demanded, voting at a meeting of the members shall be by way of show of hands.

7.12 Presiding Officers

The Chair of any meeting of the members shall be the President. The President may appoint a person, who need not be a member, to act as Chairperson of the meeting.

7.13 Rules of Order

All meetings of the membership of the Association will be governed by the rules as laid out in Appendix A.

7.14 Disaster Planning

In the unforeseen circumstances or where the President deems it necessary under the circumstances, the President may, subject to the approval of the majority of the executive, call any Association meeting, including the Annual General Meeting, to take place by telephone, videoconference or other virtual means as a substitute for an in-person meeting. Any such virtual meeting shall have the same force and effect as an in-person meeting, and may include any Association functions and decision-making as an in-person meeting, including motions, deliberations, and voting on all matter affecting the Association, including elections.

ARTICLE 8: MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

8.1 Quorum

No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum is present. A quorum for a meeting of the Board of Directors shall consist of at least 1/2 of the Board Membership. When determining whether a quorum is present, the President shall be included as a member constituting a quorum (Note - when determining this number, any ratio of .1 or higher will always be rounded up. For example, 7.1 would be 8).

8.2 Voting

The Chair of any meeting will not have a second or casting vote. Questions arising at any Board meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes of the directors present and, in the case of an equality of votes, the Chair of the meeting shall cast the deciding vote. There will be no voting by Proxy allowed. Voting can take place by email vote. A motion is made by email, a second is then made by email. The President then calls for a time period for questions, comments and discussions and then when voting is to occur. Votes are either a yes, no or abstain. Quorum is determined by a 50% + 1 majority of the responses received by the end of the voting deadline. The votes are sent in by email through a reply all and recorded by the Secretary. The Secretary or President then communicates the results of the vote. The Secretary then records the vote in the minutes of the next board meeting.

8.3 Presiding Officers

The Chair of any meeting of the Board shall be the President, or in his or her absence, the Vice-President, or if both are absent, one of the other directors. The Secretary of the meeting shall be the Secretary of the Association or, in his or her absence, the President may appoint a person, who need not be a member, to act as Secretary of the meeting.

8.4 Meeting by Conference Telephone

The Board of Directors may participate in meetings by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment, whereby all directors participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time, and participating in any such meeting shall constitute presence in person by such director at such meeting.

8.5 Advisory Members

The Board may invite persons who are not directors to attend meetings of the Board as advisory members. No such advisory member, however, shall have any right to vote at any meeting of the Board.

8.6 Emergency Board Meetings

If, in the reasonable opinion of the President (or where the President is not available, the Executive), a situation arises which requires immediate action by the Board, then the President, or any other executive officer in his/her absence, may convene a meeting of the Board on not less than 36hrs notice unless under unanimous agreement by the Board of Directors . Notice of the meeting shall include information on the sole topic(s) to be discussed and quorum must be met.

8.7 Member Attendance at a Board Meeting

Meetings are not open to the public. Any member wishing to address the Board of Directors at a meeting of the Board of Directors shall do so only upon request. Requests must be made through the director most relative to the issue being raised. The secretary will notify guests of the date and time of the meeting once the request has been received.

ARTICLE 9: COMMITTEES

The Board may create, and prescribe the duties and terms of reference of, such committee or committees of directors as it may from time to time determine necessary to more effectively permit the efficient direction of the business and affairs of the Association. The Board may delegate to such committee or committees any of the powers of the Board except those which under the Act or Articles must be exercised by the Board itself, provided that any such delegation shall not limit the ability of the Board to make decisions on any subject matter so delegated. The procedures of any such committee or committees of the Board shall, except as otherwise determine by the Board, be those applicable to the Board.

9.1 Advisory Members

The Board may appoint persons who are not directors as advisory members of any committee, provided that such advisory members shall have no right to vote in any meeting of any such committee.

ARTICLE 10: PROTECTION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Indemnification

The Association shall indemnify a Director or Officer, a former Director or Officer, or a person who acts or has acted at the Association's request as a Director or Officer of a body corporate of which the Association's Directors or Officers are members, or of which the Association is or was a shareholder or creditor and his/her heirs and legal representatives, against any liability resulting from any third party proceeding against such person (liability shall include without limitations, judgments, fines, penalties and amounts paid in the settlement) and any and all costs, charges and civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding, or any appeal there from, to which he/she is made a party by reason of being or having been a Director or Officer of the Association or such body corporate, if:

-He/she acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Association; and

- In the case of criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, he/she had reasonable grounds for believing that his/her conduct was lawful.

Costs, charges and expenses which are the subject of indemnification hereunder shall include all direct and indirect costs of any type whatsoever including any insurance deductibles and/or solicitor/client costs incurred by the person receiving indemnification. Any indemnification provided for herein shall be promptly advanced to the person eligible for indemnification as the costs, charges or expenses are incurred by such person or when such person becomes subject to a liability as defined in this section. In the event that it is determined that the person is not entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Association shall have the right to require the indemnified person to repay all amounts provided to such person pursuant to the indemnification. The burden of providing that indemnification or advances are not appropriate is on the Association.

The Association shall further indemnify any person eligible for indemnification hereunder to the extent that this indemnification results in any tax liability accruing to such indemnified person.

The Association may arrange for one or more policies of Directors' and Officers' liability insurance to be put in place at the expense of the Association and for the benefit of the Association and/or its Directors and Officers as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE 11: INDEPENDENT CHAIR OF DISCIPLINE

1. Shall be a non-member of the Association
2. Shall be appointed by the Board of Directors
3. Should a suitable non-member candidate not be available, the Board may appoint a member of the Association (but not a Board member) as Chairman of Discipline
4. Shall Chair all meetings of the Discipline Committee
5. Shall appoint a replacement Chair in his/her absence
6. Shall ensure all documents relevant to their duties are submitted to the office
7. Shall submit summary report for the AGM

ARTICLE 12: SUSPENSIONS, COMPLAINTS AND APPEALS

12.1 Suspensions

1. Suspension of a player, Team Official, or Game Official resulting from violations other than those administered by any participating Leagues (IE., SFHA, SAAHL or HRI) or the Sask Hockey Association shall be made by the President, at the recommendation of the Discipline Committee.

12.2 Complaints

The Association expects all members; Board of Directors, Team Officials, Game Officials and membership participants to exhibit qualities of good sportsmanship and decorum consistent with levels of propriety towards board members, game officials, opponents and spectators. When these standards cannot be met they may be dealt with in the following manner:

1. Any complaint or protest against any member, Team Official, player, or member of the Board of Directors shall be reported in writing to the Independent Chair of Discipline.

12.3 Appeals

1. Any person who is dissatisfied with the decision of the Discipline Committee may appeal to the Board of Directors;
2. The Appeal must be in writing and submitted to the office. It must outline all particulars pertaining to the case and shall be delivered to the Office within seven (7) days of being notified of the decision of the Discipline Committee;
3. All appeals must be requested in writing and be accompanied by the prescribed fee as set out in policy that will be refunded if ,through the appeal, the decision is overturned;

ARTICLE 13: AMENDMENT OF CONSTITUTION

This Constitution may not be altered or amended except at the Annual General Meeting, and notice of any proposed alterations shall be given to the Office, in writing, at least twenty-one (21) days and posted on the website at least fourteen (14) days before the Annual General Meeting. Changes to these bylaws must be approved by two thirds (2/3) majority of the members on attendance at the Annual General Meeting.

ARTICLE 14: AMENDMENT TO ASSOCIATION POLICY MANUAL

Changes, additions, or amendments to the Policy Manual are a function of the Board of Directors. Once approved by the Board of Directors, any changes/amendments to this document can only be made by a 2/3 vote. A complete review will happen once a year, at the July and/or August meeting of the Board following review and recommendations of the By-Law and Policy Review Committee. If required, other amendments to the Association Policy Manual may be brought forward by the Policy Review Committee throughout the season with at least 14 days written notice to the Board and voted on by the Board at any monthly meeting

ARTICLE 15: FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal period for the Association shall terminate on such date as the Board may from time to time by resolution determine

ARTICLE 16: FINANCES

16.1 Financial Responsibility

It is the responsibility of the Board of Directors to provide prudent maintenance of the financial affairs of the Association

16.2 Signing Authority

Two (2) members of the Executive, as outlined in 6.1, are required to provide signatures at the financial institution of choice for the Association annually. Subject to such limitation, the Board is authorized to appoint from time to time, by unanimous resolution, any officer or officers, or any other person or persons to have signing authority. Two (2) signatures are required for cheques issued by the Association. Under no circumstances shall blank checks be signed.

16.3 Disclosing of Financial Information

The Board of Directors shall present the reviewed financial statement from the previous fiscal year for adoption at the Annual General Meeting, as well as present the receipts and disbursements of the Association for the current fiscal year.

ARTICLE 17: BORROWING

Without limiting the borrowing powers of the Association as set forth in The Non-Profit Corporations Act, 1995 of Saskatchewan, the Board may from time to time:

1. Borrow money upon the credit of the Association;
2. Issue, reissue, sell or pledge bonds, debentures, notes or other evidence of indebtedness or guarantees of the Association, whether secured or unsecured;
3. Subject to the provisions of The Non-Profit Corporations Act, 1995, give a guarantee on behalf of the Association to secure performance of an obligation of any person; and
4. Mortgage, hypothecate, pledge or otherwise create an interest in or charge upon all or any property (including the undertaking and rights) of the Association, owned or substantially acquired, by way of mortgage, hypothecate, pledge or otherwise, to secure payment of any such evidence of indebtedness or guarantee of the Association.

This Constitution shall come into force at, and be effective from, the time of it.
