Drug & Alcohol Policy

Adopted on: January 22, 2023

Approved by: NEUSC Board of Directors

Last Updated: January 22, 2023

The North East United Soccer Club (NEUSC) has a zero-tolerance policy with regards to drugs and alcohol when partaking in any activity associated with NEUSC.

NEUSC has a duty to ensure that all participants (where 19+), coaches, referees, Board members, staff, and any other member of the NEUSC are not under the influence of drugs or alcohol at any time while conducting themselves as a representative of the NEUSC. This includes but is not limited to the following:

- Never use, distribute, or sell alcohol or drugs while partaking in a NEUSC sponsored event such as but not limited to; NEUSC indoor or outdoor soccer programming, NEUSC sponsored FUN DAY event, NEUSC sponsored training clinic or any other event sponsored by NEUSC
- Never use, distribute, or sell alcohol or drugs while representing the NEUSC as a participant, coach, referee, Board member, or any other member of the NEUSC at any event such as a soccer match, league meeting, training clinic or any other event not sponsored by NEUSC

Any person found to not be in compliance with this policy will be removed from the event in question and disciplined as applicable by NLSA Discipline Code:
