

Newfoundland and Labrador Rugby Union

SAFE SPORT - HOW TO REPORT

Welcome to our Safe Sport Reporting Page. Here, you can confidentially report any incidents or concerns regarding safety and conduct within our sports community. The Independent Third Party (ITP) for Sport NL is committed to handling our reports of Maltreatment with respect and impartiality.

NL Rugby is responsible for addressing all Code of Conduct Violations or appeals. The NL Rugby Code of Conduct, Appeals Policy, and Discipline and Complaint Policy can be found in the drop-down links on the NL Rugby website main page under “Safe Sport - Policies and Procedures”.

To make a report regarding Maltreatment, please use the following link:

<https://app.integritycounts.ca/org/itpsport>

Access to a Neutral Reporting Platform for Maltreatment related complaints: You can now report any concerns related to conduct or safety directly through the new service, available via <https://app.integritycounts.ca/org/itpsport>.

Confidentiality and Support: All reports will be handled with strict confidentiality, and you will have access to support throughout the process.

Further information and Resources can be found in the drop-down links on the NL Rugby website main page under “Safe Sport - Policies and Procedures”.

To make a report of a Code of Conduct violation or appeals may be emailed to:

mlovell@nlrugby.ca and will be heard by Newfoundland and Labrador Rugby Union.

Additionally, please note this link to the Rugby Canada Safe Sport policies: Safe SportRugby Canadahttps://rugby.ca/safe-sport

We encourage every member of our community to utilize this service if needed. Together, we can ensure a safe and positive environment for everyone.