Reports

President – Geoff

- Return to play
 - share all recent information provided by HA – they asked us to prepare as if it's a season
 - guidance, protocols
 - cohort sorting, not really evals
 - players coming from OAAA
 - volunteers required
 - waivers and the ability to monitor – need signed and printed in color by 1st session
- Disinfecting OMHA Gear
- Timbits / Novice - follow other users groups might be our only option
- Spectators in arenas Jan 2021 Update
- Refund on registration
 - Policy on website
- Preparations for when COVID-19 affects the OMHA membership
- Who's is permitted in the rink and when (including board members)

- If parents come in, 1 guardian per player up to atom and only at Pason, not the rec;
- Must follow pathway, if they don't, this privilege may be revoked
- Fake Geoff Emails
- No Live Barn, town says no – we can't hold liability for minors to be played, maybe managers can FB live

VP Coach/Player Development – Josh

VP Programs – Gabe

- Return to play document
 - Pason has ref and female rooms
- coach selection process (ideas)
 - Lead coaches to possibly cross cohort to keep development – social distance
- evals skill based approach (discussion with Jamie)
 - No jerseys, using removable stickers
 - Looking at pushing back a week
 - Skills/evals/tune-ups are not cohorts and kids can do multiple sports
 - BT4 to RHL evals
- sign in policy and procedure for rinks
- OMHA waiver
- entering and leaving the building - volunteers etc.
- Refs
 - Will try to use refs, they must isolate between games for 14 days
 - No younger refs
 - If a ref plays hockey, they can't ref
- Initiation boards – coaches will have to do it; Jamie working with the Town to allow 2 hours with no floods – worst case is back to bumpers
- Dressing rooms/parent volunteers for cleaning to allow for spectators
 - Town said if we succeed with small kids then we can move to other divisions
- Talking with John Barlow for extra push
- Our safety is presenting to OAAA
