

What are the OMHA and OOAA Fees For?

Here is a breakdown to help you understand why these fees are collected, how they are collected from teams, and how the money is used by the association.

---

Fee Structure

Every OOAA player pays the following fees:

- OMHA Fee: $210
- OOAA Fee: $200

These fees apply regardless of whether the player is on a AAA ( Fee's are invoiced directly to the team and paid to OOAA and OMHA from the team bank account) or AA team ( Fee's are deducted from the player OMHA registration fee's before being transferred to the teams bank account).

---

OMHA Fees

Okotoks Minor Hockey is the governing body of OOAA. All Hockey Alberta invoices for OOAA players are sent to OMHA. OMHA pays for these expenses using these fees. OMHA covers the cost of:

- Insurance
  - Rostering players
  - RAMP fees
  - OMHA Administration fees

OOAA Fees

OOAA fees contribute to the operations of the association. The amount collected from all teams is approximately $43,000. This is an extremely small percentage of the operating costs of the association.

The remaining operating costs are paid for from:

- Camp fees
- Tryout fees
- Casino fees
