

T-Anna Fraser is a dedicated assistant soccer coach whose journey reflects her deep commitment to the sport and player development. Having played for five years under the mentorship of Graeme Kennedy at STFX University and spending two years with club XFC, T-Anna gained invaluable experience that she now brings to her coaching. Her ability to foster individual growth is evident in her work with three players, one of whom advanced to represent Team Nova Scotia.

As a player, T-Anna boasts an impressive background, including representing Team Nova Scotia (2011-2015), participating in Team Atlantic (2013), and honing her skills through the REX program (2014). Her qualifications further highlight her dedication to ethical and effective coaching, with certifications in NCCP Make Ethical Decisions, Respect in Sport, and Soccer for Life. T-Anna's extensive experience and passion for soccer make her an inspiring role model in the soccer community.
