PMFSA 24-Hour Rule

Any parent, family member or spectator watching a PMFSA sporting event understands that if they have a disagreement – question – criticism – or evaluation of any game decision made by a Coach, Umpire, or Official the following is to be observed....

BEFORE TALKING TO ANYONE, COACH OR OTHERWISE, REGARDING A GAME DECISION, TAKE A COOLING OFF PERIOD OF 24 HOURS BEFORE YOU SPEAK TO A COACH OR ANYONE ELSE. ONLY COACHES HAVE THE RIGHT TO UMPIRES.

IF YOU HAVE AN UNSOLICITED OPINION, DO NOT TALK TO THE COACH AT A GAME OR PRACTICE OR IN FRONT OF PEOPLE. Talk to him or her about a time you can talk the next day. Talk to him or her the next day (24 hours later).

If you are not satisfied with the conversation, you may contact a member of the PMFSA League Executive.

I have read, understand and will abide by this Parent /Guardian Pledge and 24 Hour Rule. I understand that failure to comply with this Pledge may result in disciplinary action from the PMFSA Executive including but not limited to formal reprimand, suspension from practices or games, or expulsion of your child from the program.

Both parents must sign.
