Registration Tips

How do I know if I'm a returning player?

You're a returning player if you were part of our association last year. When asked "Are you a returning player?" be sure to say yes.

If you have not played with our association in the past (or "since 2012.."), when asked "Are you a returning player?" select no and proceed with the registration.

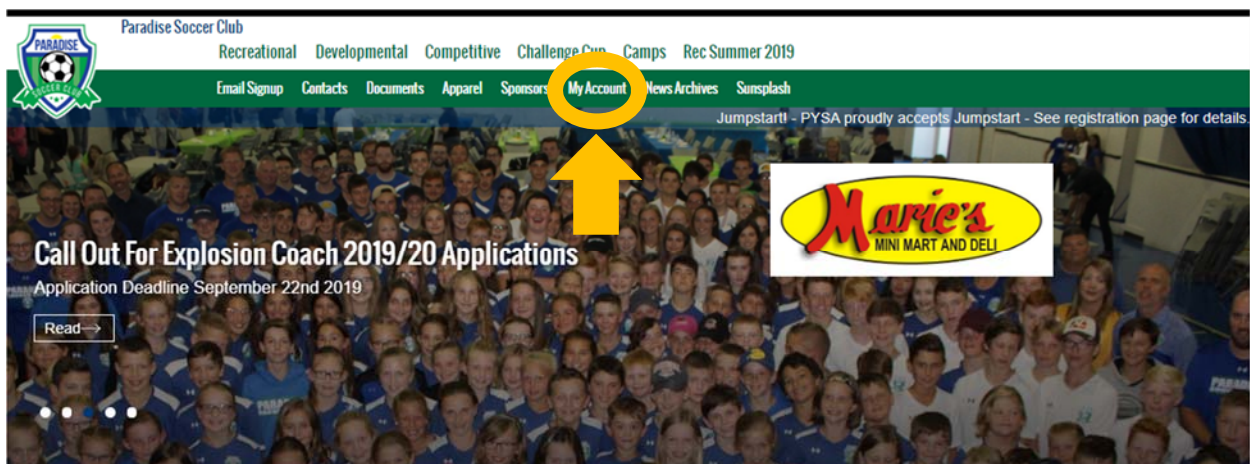

How do I retrieve my access code?

Are you a returning player trying to register but the system requires your access code? (See also the pictures below)

Using the link below the "Are you a returning player?" question, provide your information and submit. Your access code will be emailed to you. If you're shown a message that there is no player in the system that matches that information, check your information for spelling errors or an incorrect date of birth and try again. If it doesn't recognize you, simply register as a new player. If you don't receive an email, please contact us.

Already Registered but need to make a credit card payment on your account?

Click on My Account on 2nd Line Menu on our Homepage;

You will be taken to this screen and asked to enter your child's details and access code. If you have forgotten your access code you can click on the link and enter your child's name and date of birth and the system will send an automatic email to your registered email address. The you can repeat the process and enter your access code to view your account and proceed with payment;
