

2023 Rockyford Ringers Tournament Rules

U10 S1 and S2 will play half ice 3 on 3 format. Each team will provide a minimum of 1 on ice coach/official. Each team will also provide one timekeeper. Shifts will be 90 seconds and the ring will be given to the team with possession as a free pass or goalie ring at each buzzer. Periods will be 24 minutes run time. Teams are guaranteed 3 games plus a skills showcase.

U12C will play officiated games with 18 minute stop time periods with 30 second shot clock. Each team is guaranteed 3 round robin games and one medal game (Bronze or Gold).

For U12, when designated the Home team, that team will provide:

- 1 timekeeper, 1 shot clock operator, and 1 penalty box attendant

When designated the Visiting team, that team will provide:

- 1 scorekeeper (RAMP electronic game sheets will be used) and 1 penalty box attendant.

For final games, the higher ranked team will be considered the home team.

Round robin game scores will be posted in arenas. Goal differential will be a maximum of 7 goal spread on both the scoreboard and final scores.

Tie breaking procedures will follow the Ringette Alberta guidelines found on their website.
