November Member Session – Wrap Up

Saskatchewan Soccer hosted its annual November Member Sessions this past weekend in Saskatoon. The three-day event included education sessions and working meetings providing Member Organizations with an engagement opportunity to discuss the growth of soccer with staff and leading soccer experts.

This year, the sessions kicked off on Friday with technical staff highlighting upcoming technical details related to coach education, reviewing available resources for the coach community, and sharing upcoming updates across the technical landscape.

A Bylaw amendment session kicked off the Saturday plenary, followed by a presentation by Canada Soccer's Chief Operating Officer, Mathiew Chamberland on the future of soccer in Canada. In addition, Sask Soccer partnered with Canadian Women & Sport to bring its Gender Equity Lens workshop presented by Lara Schroder and Tolu Ilelaboye. This engaging session shed light on the importance of gender equity in sports and provided practical strategies to implement gender equity within organizations.

Matt Young from FSQ who presented on FSQ's Club Operating System, an easily accessible, streamlined approach to member engagement. Learn more about this innovative system here: <https://www.sasksoccer.com/content/Club-Operating-System>

Sunday, Matt returned to guide members through an understanding of the experience customers (parents, players, and coaches) go through with their club and how to make adjustments to help attract, retain, and grow your customer base.

2023-24 Female Development Network

Saskatchewan Soccer's 2023-24 Female Development Network (FDN) cohort hosted their first in-person event of the season this past weekend in Saskatoon. Participants were provided the opportunity to take part in Saskatchewan Soccer's Member Session, Canadian Women in Sport Gender Equity Lens training. The group worked through the training alongside Saskatchewan Soccer executive and members, bringing a unique lens to ensure that everyone understands their role in making soccer more inclusive for girls and women. An evening social and dinner event provided additional opportunities for mentorship and discussion.
