

Carrie Marshall

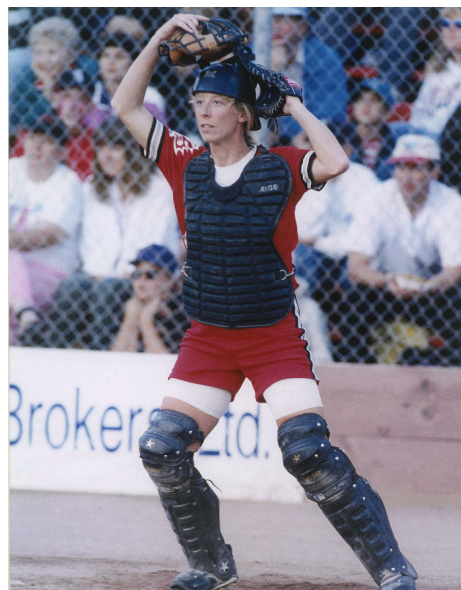

2008 Inductee - Athlete

Softball was Carrie's passion and she "caught" the softball spirit early in life. Carrie began her softball career in 1974, as a mini mite in North Delta and continued to play there for the next seventeen years, graduating from Seaquam Secondary.

On a full scholarship, Carrie attended Centenary College in Shreveport, Louisiana where she graduated with a Bachelor of Arts. In 1990 she was named the Female Athlete of the Year and was also Scholastic and Athlete All-American. In 2001 Carrie was inducted into the Centenary College Athletic Hall of Fame.

Carrie was a member of the White Rock Renegades dynasty that dominated women's softball in the early '90s. In 1992 and 1993 the White Rock Renegades were the Gold Medal winners at the Canadian Sr. 'A' Women's Championships.

Carrie was the starting catcher for the Canadian Women's National Team for six years. Her accomplishments have allowed her to travel around the world as she competed in various tournaments. In 1991 she competed for Canada at the Pan American Games in Cuba where Canada captured a Silver medal, and again in 1995 in Argentina where Canada repeated their silver medal performance. At the 1994 ISC World championships in St. John's, Newfoundland as one of the top five finishers Canada qualified for the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta, Georgia. Carrie competed with Team Canada at the Summer Olympics at the inaugural tournament of women's softball where the team finished fifth.

Currently Carrie resides in Surrey, BC and is a Real Estate Agent for Royal LePage. She also is a member of City of Surrey's Mayor's task force on 2010 Olympics.

Carrie's newest passion is enjoying Motherhood.
