

Erin (Woods) White

2025 Inductee - Athlete Category

Erin White's impressive career began early as a member of the successful Richmond Islanders team and later with the Richmond Pride under the late, great Mike Woods. Her teams consistently reached the Western Canadian and Canadian Championships, where they captured gold in 1998.

After a standout minor softball career, Erin joined the Cyclones at Iowa State University, quickly becoming a star. She was a four-year starter, earning All-Big 12 Second Team honours in 1996 and 1998. In 1999, she received both All-Big 12 First Team and All-Midwest Region Team distinctions. Erin is also a member of the Iowa State University Hall of Fame and remains the only softball player at Iowa State University to have her jersey retired.

Erin's first appearance with the national team program came at the 1995 Junior Women's Softball World Championship in Illinois. Her national team career spanned nine years and included participation in the 1998 World Championships, the 1999 Pan American Games, the 2003 Olympic Qualifier, the 2004 Prague Cup, and two Olympic appearances in Sydney in 2000 and Athens in 2004.

Erin is a true inspiration for young players who dream of one day wearing the maple leaf.
