

Jerry Dugger

2019 Inductee - Coach Category

Mr. Jerry Dugger began coaching in 1985, and showed great expertise early. Jerry, noticing a need, created the Burnaby Oakeys. Under Jerry's leadership the Burnaby Oakey's name would become synonymous with excellence for more than two decades. Under his tenure the Burnaby Oakey's association would grow to over 1,000 members in the late 1990s.

All while creating an association that stood for excellence, Jerry was equally as busy creating success as a coach within the association. Jerry would secure three Canadian National Championships as a Burnaby Oakey's Head Coach. Never one to settle, Jerry would be named the Head Coach of Team BC in 1995 and 2007 for the Western Canada Summer Games. In 1997 Jerry would be named the Head Coach of Team BC at the Canada Summer Games.
