

Softball Nova Scotia On-Field Conduct Disciplinary Policy

Incidents of official, player and spectator abuse are now commonplace in all sports. In fact, finding examples of behavior in sport that we would acknowledge as violent is not difficult. It is not just players committing acts of violence. Although not as frequent, there has been an alarming number of violent incidents perpetrated by coaches and by spectators. Violence by and between players, officials, coaches, and spectators has been documented far too frequently (1).

Softball NS promotes Fair Play Codes for players, coaches, parents, teachers, officials, administrators, and spectators. The preferred way to reduce abuse is through education of all stakeholders; however, it appears that sanctions also play a significant role in reducing abuse (3).

Softball Nova Scotia has jurisdiction over sanctioned activities which include Provincial Leagues, Provincial team activities, Sanctioned Club Tournaments, Exhibition Games using Softball NS registered umpires, Provincial Championships, Eastern Canadians Qualifiers, and any incident reports submitted by a Sanctioned out-of-Province Club Tournament or an Eastern Canadian/Canadian Championship tournament host committee.

Submitting Complaints An incident occurring during any sanctioned Softball Nova Scotia activities that alleges a 'type of misconduct' (described below) should be reported to the Softball Nova Scotia Executive Director. When applicable, an Umpire Ejection Report must be submitted as per the Umpire Ejection Report Form.

Complaints within the Softball Nova Scotia jurisdictions - Upon written receipt of a complaint, Softball Nova Scotia will advise the respondent in a timely manner. They may be temporarily held under review, and unable to compete in any practices and/or sanctioned games/tournaments until a formal review and decision has been rendered.

Leagues are strongly encouraged to develop their own Disciplinary Guidelines that are suited to their own needs as a method to help reduce the number of incidents involving abuse. Leagues are welcome to adopt the Softball Nova Scotia Disciplinary Guidelines with the League Executive ruling on any incidents reported. Softball Nova Scotia will uphold all suspensions, if necessary, for any SNS sanctioned event.
