The assistant coaches, as well as parents, take their cues from the coach. Therefore, success of the program is dependent on the coaches embracing our goals and working to achieve them.

10.01 Coaching Goals

- 10.01.1 Create an environment in which children and adults can have fun with baseball and fastball.

- 10.01.1.A Encourage players often. Demonstrate by behavior and words that each child is an important member of the team regardless of their level of performance. Recognize and encourage effort as well as results. Spend comparable instructional time with all players regardless of ability.
- 10.01.1.B Allow each player fair playing time, cannot sit more than 2 innings in a row.
- 10.01.1.C Demonstrate your own enthusiasm and enjoyment of the game to your players.
- 10.01.1.D Encourage parents to become involved with the team.
- 10.01.2 Teach baseball/fastball skills, rules and strategy to our players.
- 10.01.2.A Rely on positive reinforcement for things done correctly. Minimize negative emphasis on mistakes. This is required in order for learning to take place. Players can handle only so much negative feedback without becoming discouraged. Players will learn more, try harder, and be more open to accepting criticism if they are praised often. Praise players in public and correct them in private.
- 10.01.2B Provide adequate repetition when teaching. Baseball and fastball are complicated and lessons often need repeating before they are understood. Once players understand, they often need repeated practice before they can perform the expected behavior well.
- 10.01.2D Organize practices to maximize learning and minimize inactivity. ie Stations of fielding, hitting, and pitching.

- 10.01.3D Treat players on opposing teams as members of the community first and as opponents second. Always refrain from displaying actions or words that undercut the self-esteem of players on either team. All coaches must accept and maintain responsibility for the positive sport experience of both teams in the sport contest.
- 10.01.4 Manage the team equipment and facilities.
- 10.01.4A The coach will work with other members of the SMBA to communicate with parent and SMBA. Maintain equipment needs. Register and communicate the provincial body as necessary.

9.08.05 Attend or appoint another member to attend league meetings.

- f. The evaluation sheets will be compiled with all the team selection committee members present.
- g. The compiled results will be used to select the top 75% of the team involved in the selection process.
- h. After the top 75% of the players are selected a coach will be selected by the Division Coordinator and President of Baseball. This coach will determine the remaining positions of the team based on position requirements (catcher, outfielders, etc.) Using the evaluation sheets created by the selection committee.
