U13: Stephen Unger Division Head:

Date of Report: February 28, 2025

Updates:

Regular season is now complete. The top 10 out of the 12 leagues teams were very close in the standings. The Stallions and Mustangs will be competing in playoffs.

Provincial team has won their first game against Warman in the first round of SHA playoffs. Next game will be Saturday March 1st in Warman.

Discipline/Concerns:

Chargers coaches were involved in an incident in Maple Creek. Head Coach suspended (3) games, and the Assistant Coach suspended (8) games. These actions were very uncharacteristic of both coaches. Both coaches reached out to their respective team immediately after the game with a written apology. Any players that were affected by their coaches actions were addressed individually.

Bennett Gramyk suspended one game for checking from behind with less than 10 minutes remaining in the 3rd period.

I would like to discuss the potential clean up of our Rules and Regulations. As a new board member, I find the Rules and Regulations ambiguous and, therefore, difficult to enforce.

*Respectfully submitted,
Stephen Unger*

U11: Paul Hegglin

Nothing to Report since Last meeting.

Legionnaires/Wildcats Liaison
March 03rd 2025 Liaison Larry Empey

Head Coaches: Todd Hornung/ Terry Pavely

Updates: The Legionnaires and Wildcats have now both finished their regulation season which found the Legionnaire's finishing in 3rd place which means they see Warman in the first round and are currently down a game in that series.

The Wildcats finished regulation season in 4th place, which leaves them to play Prince Albert in their first round which will start later this week.

Both teams were able to utilize a variety of AP players this season and are happy with how those AP players fit in with their respective groups.

Come out and cheer on both these teams as they battle their way through the playoff run.

Respectfully Submitted
