

“One player from another university told our players she would never play for Tennessee, because she wouldn’t have freedom to run the floor and take her shots. Well, she’s right. She’s a wild shooter. If she came to Tennessee, she’d have to take good shots. Because you don’t just take shots for yourself. You take them for the whole team. That’s the kind of responsibility we try to instill.”

- Pat Summitt