

Regardless of field width/length, all markings within the field remain the same, except the retreat line which is based on  $\frac{1}{3}$  of the length of the field. All markings are the same for both halves of the field.