Guest Players (Call-up) Rules

- Guest players can only play up to a team within the same program (ex: boarded teams can only call up from boarded teams, 7v7 teams can only call up from 7v7 teams).

- A player who has completed a transfer to another team may not play up to any team they were previously registered to in the same season

- Each team may call up a maximum of four (4) players for each game.

- Each player may play up a maximum of six (6) times per team per season.

- When playing a youth (CMSA registered) player, the team must submit an original CWSA Restricted Movement Form (photo copies are not acceptable) signed by the referee of the game in which the player plays. The player's parent, legal guardian or duly appointed signatory of the team or club to which the player is registered with must also sign the Restricted Movement Form. The appointed signatory must have reached 18 years of age

- Minor Restricted Movement Form

- Players and team officials are responsible for keeping track of their call ups.

Guest Player Recording on Game Sheet:

Include: First Name, Last Name, Registered Team Name and CWSA ID Number.

All guest players must have 'GUEST PLAYER' written next to their name on the game sheet.

Ex: Jane Smith - YYC FC (GUEST PLAYER)
