

Officiating Report February 2016

Western regionals are just around the corner and I am looking for officials from across the region who are interested in officiating. This is a great opportunity for our officials to be evaluated by senior officials and gain valuable experience on the ice.

If any of your referees are interested please go to the western region webpage and sign up under regionals 2016.