A great big thank you to Shelley Klassen as WORL Scheduler for preparing and presenting the schedules in the all divisions for games to be played from October until March 2018. Steve Baker from London will assign officials to the WORL schedule during the season. On behalf of the League and all the players, coaches and parents, thank you to both Shelley and Steve for your support and commitment to this sport!

The November WORL meeting brought forward effective immediately for the remainder of the 2018/19 Season some changes to the WORL Player Substitution Policy. See the WORL website for further details at www.worl.ca. All teams are reminded to submit scores within 24 hours of their scheduled games. Results and standings can also be found on the WORL website as well as a current list of League contacts including current division conveners.

Games that must be re-scheduled please follow the flow chart detailing the process as outlined on the website: <http://www.wrra.ca/alweb/documents/reschedflow.pdf>

There is a meeting scheduled for Sat Dec 8th in Mississauga with representatives from WORL and CORL which includes Provincial level of play in Western, Southern and Central Regions. This meeting is to begin a more detailed discussion to explore a merger of the 2 leagues for both AA and A teams.
